

Values at Walter Infant School

September 2018

How do you think we should behave?

Walter Infant School
Expectations for Behaviour

Expectations for Behaviour

- ❧ Treat each other with respect
- ❧ Be kind and polite to everyone
- ❧ Tell the truth
- ❧ Look after the school and the things in it
- ❧ Move around the school sensibly
- ❧ Always try your best

Walter Infant School High Five

All the adults working at school have chosen 5 values, ways to behave, that we think are the most important for our school!

What do you think they might be?

Walter Infant School High Five

Kindness

Respect

Honesty

Empathy

Resilience

What do they mean?

Kindness

Respect

Honesty

Empathy

Resilience

Walter High Five

Walter High Five

Walter High Five

☞ We would like everyone in our school community; children, teachers, other staff, parents, relatives and carers, governors and visitors to behave in a way that shows they understand our values and want to be part of our school community.

