

Walter Infant School and Nursery

Friday Flyer

Dear Walter Families,

Christmas Boxes and Bags

It has been quite unbelievable, taking receipt of the many Christmas Bags and Boxes that have been put together by some anonymous families and friends of Walter, for those who may not be as lucky as others at this extremely expensive time of year. The people who would like to donate are given a number, a gender and an age, for example: 21, boy, age 6. They can then buy sweet and savoury treats and or drinks/ some toys or a game, perhaps a book, some pens and possibly something warm to wear, such as gloves. We then handle the logistics of matching the label to the bag or box.

Excellent Work in School

Walter has been practising his handwriting skills and was able to write all these sentences all by himself.

Olivia has shown that she is an excellent sewer, producing this beautiful pink stocking, with such neat sewing stitches.

A Choir Concert at West Oak Care Home

21 children and the Year 2 Teachers as well as me and Mrs Bell, all went across the road to West Oak Care Home (where my mum now resides) for a Carol Concert! The children's singing was superb and their behaviour was exemplary. I was so proud of them and they all really enjoyed themselves and represented our school perfectly.

The Year 2 Christmas Extravaganza

We all thoroughly enjoyed the two extravaganzas performed by the amazing Year 2 children; they all loved taking part so much and they were incredible.

Christmas Lunch and Christmas Jumper Day

Wednesday was super busy, as not only did we have Christmas Jumper Day, and the Year 2 Performances, we also had our Christmas Lunch! Mrs Bell and I helped to serve the food and the staff waited on the tables! Natalia, our School Cook and her team did an excellent job of the food and the children really enjoyed wearing their crowns and being served by the adults in school!

Christmas Parties

Wow! The Christmas Parties on Thursday were so much fun; the children loved the games; the dancing and the party food and great fun was had by all!

So many Elves in school

There have been elves everywhere in school for the last two weeks; although one was touched by human hands and whisked straight back to the North Pole! The children have loved seeing what the elves have been up to in school as well as sharing what their elves have been up to at home.

And my absolute favourite...

Stars of the Week

So here are the last stars of 2024! And what wonderful stars they are!

Good bye and Good Luck

We are saying Goodbye to Mrs Prickett, who is leaving us to enjoy her retirement, which we hope will be long and happy and full of adventures.

We are also saying goodbye to Miss Tauni Dutton, who has got a new job at a different school. We wish her every happiness in her pursuits.

Thank you

I would like to extend a huge thank you to all of you who have given myself and my amazing team cards and gifts to help us celebrate the festive season; we are all very appreciative of your kindness and generosity.

Walter is very grateful for all his treats and presents too; he is a very lucky dog.

Have a wonderful holiday time; take care, keep warm and enjoy yourselves.
